

The Choristers' Organ

The Choristers' Organ, in the Frantz Chapel at Christ Church, Greenwich, was built by Visser-Rowland of Houston TX (opus 78) for St Thomas More Catholic Church, Darien CT, in 1986. The instrument was no longer needed at St Thomas More following its reordering, and was moved to Christ Church in the summer of 2019 by Meloni and Farrier Organbuilders.

Hauptwerk

Prinzival 8'
Rohrflöte 8' (1-12 from Subbass)
Oktav 4'
Waldflöte 2'
Sesquialter II (TC) 2 2/3' (double draw)
Mixture IV 1 1/3'
Trompet 8'

Brustwerk (expressive)

Gemshorn 8'
Celeste (TC) 8'
Kleingedeckt 4'
Prinzival 2'
Larigot 1 1/3'
Rohrschalmei 8'

Pedal

Subbass 16'
Prinzival (HW) 8'
Gedeckt (Ext) 8'
Oktav (HW) 4'
Fagott 16'

Hauptwerk to Pedal
Brustwerk to Pedal
Tremulant (affecting whole organ)
Zimbelstern
Coupler Manual